

Youth4Regions Media Programme

Deadline for submissions: 30 June 2017 5pm (Brussels time)
Applications received after this date will not be accepted.

The European Commission's Directorate General for Regional and Urban Policy wishes to encourage students in journalism to communicate on concrete projects co-funded by the European Regional Development and Cohesion Funds. Specific objectives include:

- fostering young journalistic productions to promote knowledge of the European Union;
- creating a space for debate, share values and ways of working;
- enhancing the links between European institutions and youth.

To this end, all schools in journalism established in the EU are invited to participate in the competition organised in the framework of the European Week of Regions and Cities (www.regions-and-cities.europa.eu) co-organised by the European Commission and the Committee of the Regions.

Object of the competition is the preparation of a short article that depict in an original manner a project co-financed by the European Regional Development and Cohesion Funds, supporting smart, inclusive or sustainable growth, particularly job creation, improved quality of life and sustainable development.

Concrete projects may for instance be found online on the Inforegio website:

http://ec.europa.eu/regional_policy/en/projects/

The jury will assess eligible applications as per the above conditions according to the following selection criteria:

- Their originality (a new story or an unusual angle);
- The extent to which they are compelling for the reader or viewer and catch the interest;
- Their respect for the ethical principles of journalism;
- The extent to which they demonstrate a rigorous approach in terms of research and field work.

Applications will be assessed on both substance and style of the young journalists' work.

Each school may submit up to 2 applications by 30 June 5pm (Brussels time) in line with the below conditions for entry. The reward, to be announced in July, will consist in an invitation to take part in Brussels, along 28 other selected students, in the Media Programme of the European Week of Regions and Cities with more than 150 invited journalists from 8th to 11th October 2017.

You can check here the 2016 EWRC media programme.

Conditions for entry (eligibility criteria)

1. All applications must be sent by email by the school administration, or by a school teacher, and must be duly signed by the student.
2. Each participating school may submit up to 2 applications for this competition.
3. The short articles must be at least 400 words and may not exceed 1000 words. Only written contributions will be accepted.
4. Applications must be submitted in English.
5. Team applications will not be accepted, only individual applications are accepted.
6. The European Commission reserves the right to use the articles submitted in presentation materials, with the media, and to reproduce them in any form.
7. The Jury will be composed by journalists that participated in previous editions of the EWRC Media Programme and by officials from the European Institutions, working in the media/journalism/communication fields.
8. The jury's decision is final and without appeal. The jury reserves the right to reject any entry that does not comply with the requirements of the competition.

Applicants must provide us with the following contact details form in English:

I. Contact Details:

Full name and title of student
Name of school
Address of school (Inc. post code)
Country
Email address of school
Email address of student
Mobile phone of student
Signature of student

II. Please attach to your application as an electronic file:

- the written contribution (short article)
- a current photo;
- your CV;

Please submit the completed form and additional documents to:
Youth4RegionsMedia@ewrc.eu by the 30 June 2017, 5pm (Brussels time).