

Academic subject: INTERNATIONAL LAW
Degree Class: L-36		Degree Course: Political Science
		Academic Year: 2020/2021
		Kind of class: mandatory
		Year: II
		Period: September-December
		ECTS: divided into ECTS lessons: ECTS exe/lab/tutor:
Time management, hours, in-class study hours, out-of-class study hours lesson: exe/lab/tutor: in-class study:64 out-of-class study:136
Language: Italian		Compulsory Attendance: no
Subject Teacher: GIOVANNI CELLAMARE		Tel:080/5717764 e-mail: giovanni.cellamare1@uniba.it
		Office: Department of Political Science Room 1 Floor III Corso Italia no. 23
		Office days and hours: Tuesday, 12.30-14.30 from September to December Tuesday, 9.30-12.30 from January to August
Prerequisites: Passing the IUS / 09 exam of public law institutions is the necessary condition that must be met in order to take Educational objectives: Mastery of the subject, the ability to independently research regulatory and jurisprudential sources and to interpret them systematically. The student will have the ability to identify mutual links between the issues in international law, as well as between these issues and the specific cases in which they may play a role, especially from the point of view of the internal legal operator. The student will have to acquire the ability to analyze concrete cases during the lessons or by means of individual or group reports. Technical clarity in presenting. The student must show an adequate level of methodological skills
Expected learning outcomes (according to Dublin Descriptors)		Knowledge and understanding: Knowledge and understanding of the structure and features of the international community and its organization Applying knowledge and understanding: Knowledge and ability to use the relevant legal categories in the analysis of the practice of the international community Making judgements: Autonomy of view in relation to the application in the practice of the rules and institutes that are studied during the course Communication: Ability to communicate the knowledge learned using the language appropriate to the communicative situation in question Lifelong learning skills: Ability to acquire the skills and the methodological knowledge that are instrumental both in subsequent future theoretical learning and in the application of the acquired knowledge
Course program The international legal system and its fundamental characteristics. The international subjects, the sources of international law, as well as the relations between these sources and the domestic law. The territorial sovereignty and its limits. The protection of human rights and the treatment of foreign citizens, migrants, in particular. The punishment of international crimes. The treatment of foreign states and their bodies. The treatment of international organizations and their officials. The international law of the sea. What an international wrongful act amounts to. The rules concerning the use of force in contemporary international law. Self-defense in international law. The collective security system of the United Nations. International disputes, the means aimed at settling or at facilitating the solution of international disputes.

Teaching methods:

Lectures, seminars, mainly interdisciplinary exercises in English and / or French. Projections referring to topical cases that shed light on the relevant practice. The active participation of students is required, which may include the presentation of individual and / or group works aimed at directing students towards the acquisition of methodologies and the capacity for autonomy and analysis

Auxiliary teaching:

Assessment methods:

Oral Interview

Bibliography:

B. CONFORTI, Diritto internazionale, Editoriale Scientifica, Napoli, XI edizione (a cura di Massimo Iovane), 2018 (pp. 3-120; 140-490), or

F. SALERNO, Diritto internazionale. Principi e norme, Cedam, Padova, IV, edizione, 2017 (pp. 1-65, 113-270, 303--547);

and

G. CELLAMARE, Lezioni su la disciplina dell'immigrazione irregolare nell'Unione europea, Giappichelli, Torino, 2011 (except paragraphs 10, 14-16, Chapter II).