

| General Information | |
|-----------------------|---|
| Academic subject | BIOLAW |
| Degree course | ECONOMICS AND BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION / LAW DEGREE COURSE |
| Curriculum | |
| ECTS credits | 6 |
| Compulsory attendance | NO |
| Language | ITALIAN |

| Subject teacher | Name Surname | Mail address | SSD |
|-----------------|------------------|--|-------|
| | CATALDO DE SINNO | cataldo.desinno@uniba.it | IUS01 |

| ECTS credits details | Area | | CFU/ETCS |
|---------------------------|------|--|----------|
| Basic teaching activities | 12 | | 6 |

| Class schedule | |
|----------------|-----------------|
| Period | SECOND SEMESTER |
| Year | III |
| Type of class | FRONTAL LESSON |

| Time management | |
|--------------------------|-----|
| Hours | 150 |
| In-class study hours | 48 |
| Out-of-class study hours | 102 |

| Academic calendar | |
|-------------------|--------------------|
| Class begins | FEBRUARY, 21, 2022 |
| Class ends | JUNE, 3, 2022 |

| Syllabus | |
|----------------------------|--|
| Prerequisites/requirements | |

| | |
|----------------------------|--|
| Expected learning outcomes | Knowledge and understanding of related legal institutions. Autonomous critical evaluation capability. Ability to apply concrete knowledge acquired during the Biodiritto course |
| Contents | The sources of the bio-right Human Rights. Knowledge and features. Human dignity. The Convention of Oviedo. Self-determination as a self-responsible freedom of choice; acts of disposition of one's own body; organ donation; free and informed consent for health care; Mandatory vaccinations and the decree law 7 June 2017, No. 73, converted to 31 July 2017, No. 119 - The bioethics issues of the law relating to the beginning of life (the termination of pregnancy; medically assisted fertilization, l. 40 of 19 February 2004); damage from birth and unwanted life. The right to be born and not to be born if not healthy - End-of-life legal bioethics issues; access to palliative care and pain therapy (l. 15/3/2010, No. 38); rejection of health care; euthanasia; assisted suicide. Biological Testament and D.A.T. (Early Treatment Provisions) in law December 22, 2017, No. 219 The environment and the ecosystem. - - Emissions and emissions. Polluting activities, the right to health and the health of the environment - legal remedies. The precautionary principle and the prevention principle |
| Course program | |
| Bibliography | A) A. TORRENTE - P. SCHLESINGER, Private Law Manual, Giuffrè, Milan, last edition; B) DE SINNO - F. COLUCCI, Health and Environment Between Law and Chronicle, Kurumuny publisher, 2015; only pages 16- 61; 77-140; 167-189 |
| Notes | Text A) refers to the study of the hierarchy of sources, the acts of disposition of one's own body, as well as the problems of biolaw of the beginning of life and end of life. Text B), in the following parts, is recommended for the study of the rights of the person to the health and health of the environment, the precautionary principle and the related legal issues. It is necessary to consult the legislative texts (civil code and laws covered by the program) |

| | |
|---------------------|--|
| Teaching methods | The most recent judgments issued on the themes of bio-rights by Italian jurisprudence and the European Courts will be commented on during the lectures. |
| Assessment methods | Oral examination |
| Evaluation criteria | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Critical insights into some complex legal issues, with a focus on the issues recently discussed by the D.A.T., the protection of human health from polluting activities and the lack or failure to apply the precautionary principle, a true cornerstone of the Environmental Biolaw |
| Further information | |