

General information
Academic subject	International Institutional Law
Degree course	Five-year Degree Course in Law; Degree Course in Legal Services for Immigration, Human Rights and Interculturality
Academic Year	It varies according to the degree course undertaken and the choices made.
European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System (ECTS)	6
Language	Italian
Academic calendar (starting and ending date)	II semester
Attendance	NO

Professor/ Lecturer
Name and Surname	Ivan Ingravallo
E-mail	ivan.ingravallo@uniba.it
Telephone
Department and address	Ionic Department, via Duomo 259, Taranto
Virtual headquarters
Tutoring (time and day)	To be agreed by email with the professor

Syllabus
Learning Objectives	The course aims to introduce international organizations, their structure and their functioning, also through the analysis of regulatory sources and jurisprudential cases. It promotes the development of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - knowledge and understanding, analysis, critical interpretation of sources and problem solving; - the ability of applied understanding of the knowledge acquired in concrete cases, also for the purpose of their use in carrying out work activities within international organizations; - autonomy of judgment and communication skills, as well as learning ability and capacities to continue learning..
Course prerequisites	Basic knowledge of International Law.
Contents	Origins, evolution and characteristics of international organizations. Composition, structure and functioning of international organizations. The legal personality and responsibility of international organizations. Immunity and privileges of international organizations and their officials. The acts of international organizations. The financing of international organizations and their budget. Dispute resolution and international organizations.
Books and bibliography	P. Pennetta, S. Cafaro, A. Di Stasi, I. Ingravallo, G. Martino, C. Novi, Diritto delle organizzazioni internazionali, Assago, CEDAM, 2018 (chapters I-VIII; and two chapters chosen from among chapters IX to XIV).
Additional materials

Work schedule
Total	Lectures	Hands on (Laboratory, working groups, seminars, field trips)	Out-of-class study hours/ Self-study hours
Hours
150	48		102
ECTS

6
Teaching strategy
	Frontal lessons. The teaching course is not delivered in e-learning mode.
Expected learning outcomes
Knowledge and understanding on:	Knowledge and understanding of the issues concerning the subject studied in the historical-legal context of reference and in relation to the other subjects of the degree course.
Applying knowledge and understanding on:	Applied knowledge and understanding with regard to the connection between theory and practice, in a subject with significant multidisciplinary interrelationships and subject to daily application.
Soft skills	Autonomy of judgement. At the end of the course the student should be able to read the rules of positive law, in their judicial application. Communication skills. At the end of the course, the student should be able to explain the acquired knowledge in an argued manner, also in relation to the political, economic and social context in which he/she intends to operate. Ability to learn in an autonomous manner. At the end of the course, the student should be able to handle the complexity of the subject matter also in its future developments, thus demonstrating an understanding of the peculiarities of the discipline covered by the course.

Assessment and feedback
Methods of assessment	Oral exam with discussion.
Evaluation criteria	Knowledge and understanding. Assessment of the fluency in legal language through oral exposition in the final examination; assessment of the ability to understand the topics covered by the programme through oral exposition in the final examination. Applied knowledge and understanding. Assessment of understanding of the topics covered by the programme through oral presentation in the final examination; assessment of the ability to interconnect the topics in the final examination. Autonomy of judgement. Evaluation of the ability to critically review the topics covered by the programme through oral presentation in the final examination; evaluation of the ability to understand the relevant sources and case-law through oral presentation in the final examination. Communication skills. Verification of language property through oral presentation in the final exam; verification of understanding of the programme topics through oral presentation in the final exam. Learning skills. Verification of the methodology used for the study of the subject by means of exposition during the final examination; verification of the ability to understand the topics covered in the syllabus by means of interaction during the lessons.
Criteria for assessment and attribution of the final mark	The final mark is awarded in thirtieths. The examination is deemed passed when the mark is greater than or equal to 18/30. There will be assessed for the award of the final grade: the proper knowledge of the topics of the examination questions within the broader framework of the general topics of the course; the proper capacity of expression; and the correct use of general and subject specific legal language.
Additional information	