

General information
Academic subject	Civil procedural law II
Degree course	Law
Academic Year	Fifth year
European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System (ECTS)	6
Language	Italian
Academic calendar (starting and ending date)	II Semester (23/2/2022- 31/5/2022)
Attendance	No

Professor/ Lecturer
Name and Surname	Maria Laura Spada
E-mail	marialaura.spada@uniba.it
Telephone	099372382
Department and address	Dipartimento Jonico – Via Duomo 259 – Taranto
Virtual headquarters	Microsoft Teams
Tutoring (time and day)	To be agreed by email with the professor

Syllabus
Learning Objectives	The teaching aims to provide students with an exhaustive understanding the system of appeals and special proceedings (labour procedure, summary proceedings, precautionary sentences, proceedings of separation of spouses and divorce, chambers proceedings, class actions) and of main institutions in executive proceedings.
Course prerequisites	Istituzioni di diritto privato
Contents	The content of the course is complementary to what is dealt with in the context of the programme of Civil procedure I. Institutes of notable practical importance and broad implementation experience will be discussed in class, such as the appeal judgment and the other systems of appeal and proceedings before the labour courts, summary judgements, provisional and precautionary measures, debarment, separation and divorce proceedings, as well as the enforcement proceeding.
Books and bibliography	G. BALENA, Istituzioni di diritto processuale civile ⁴ , Cacucci, Bari, 2019, vol. I and vol. II (pp. 1 – pp. 300).
Additional materials

Work schedule
Total	Lectures	Hands on (Laboratory, working groups, seminars, field trips)	Out-of-class study hours/ Self-study hours
Hours
150	48		90
ECTS
6

Teaching strategy
Expected learning outcomes
Knowledge and understanding on:	Knowledge and understanding: students will have the opportunity to learn the central themes of the civil process system to protect subjective rights and/ or status as well as individual civil proceedings for the implementation of the same. Autonomy of judgment: through the analysis of regulatory sources and the comment of case law, the student will be able to acquire flexibility, initiative, attitude to problem solving, critical problem assessment skills, and, general capacity to draw up procedural documents. Communication skills: the student will be able to re-elaborate and communicate with rigorous methodological information, ideas, problems and solutions related to all the topics of the course.
Applying knowledge and understanding on:	Ability to apply knowledge and understanding: through the continuous connection between theoretical notions and practical cases, the student will acquire an excellent knowledge of the application profiles of the subject developing a special method to allow him to identify the discipline applicable to individual cases
Soft skills	Communication skills: the student will be able to re-elaborate and communicate with rigorous methodological information, ideas, problems and solutions related to all the topics of the course. Learning skills: the student, addressing the topics covered by the course, will learn the systematic reconstruction of the theme of the protection of rights and/ or status .

Assessment and feedback
Methods of assessment	Oral examination
Evaluation criteria	Knowledge of the positive discipline of civil processes and of the main doctrinal and jurisprudential guidelines will be verified
Criteria for assessment and attribution of the final mark	The final grade will be awarded in thirtieth grade. The assessment for the assignment of the final grade will take into account the correct knowledge of the topics related to the course and the ability to apply the acquired knowledge to the concrete cases that will be submitted
Additional information	