Evaluation criteria (Explain for each expected learning outcome what a student has to know, or is able to do, and how many levels of achievement there are.	The final exam, taken at the end of the semester year, certifies that a student has reached his graduation goal, based on students' levels upon beginning of their studies. The graduation goal is defined as the minimum level a student is expected to reach before graduation. Students must demonstrate good appreciation of the subject matter including, where appropriate, methodological and technical skills. Students that do not pass their final exam can re-take it according to schedules set by the University. Oral exams take place during regular exam sessions and are published on the academic calendar. At the end of the oral exam, students will receive a grade, expressed in thirtieths, as well as credits and a certification of their level.
