Syllabus
Learning Objectives	Knowledge of the complex dynamics of the Christianization of society, with particular attention to issues relating to the impact with paganism and the birth of the Church
Course prerequisites	Basic knowledge of History; comprehension and written text interpretations skills
Contents	The course purpose is to investigate the modalities and the forms of the spreading and the development of Christendom, from the beginning to the Late-Antique, relating to the birth of the Church as an Institution, and with particular attention to the transition from heresy to orthodoxy, from the churches to the Church,. Issues related to the impact of Christianity with paganism will be object of this study, with particular reference to the persecutions; the organisation of the first communities; to the role that women played; to the creation of the ecclesiastical hierarchy; to how the concept of 'primacy of the Church' was created, to the birth of martyr and saint worship, to the related development of pilgrimage and the sanctuarial phenomenon.
