

General Information
Academic subject
Degree course
Curriculum
ECTS credits
Compulsory attendance	No
Language	Italiano

Subject teacher	Name Surname	Mail address	SSD
	Maria Stefania Scardigno	maria Stefania.scardigno@uniba.it	IUS/01 (Private Law)

ECTS credits details		SSD	Credits
Basic teaching activities	Attività fondamentale	IUS/01	6

Class schedule
Period	Semestre II march 2018 – May 2018
Year	2017 - 2018
Type of class

Time management
Hours measured	60 minutes
In-class study hours	40 hours
Out-of-class study hours

Academic calendar
Class begins
Class ends

Syllabus
Prerequisite requirements
Expected learning outcomes (according to Dublin Descriptors)	Knowledge and understanding The course aims to acquire: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- the basic knowledge of the legal system and the main institutions involved in the discipline of media;</li> <li>- knowledge of the main legal rules governing the various sectors of the discipline (press, radio and television and new media);</li> <li>- knowledge and understanding the main legal issues related to the use of the media, with specific reference to the most recent technological innovations, to the problems related to economic exploitation and personal protection.</li> </ul> Applying knowledge and understanding The student is able to access sources necessary to operate with awareness of interest (regulation, jurisprudence, public bodies, etc.). Autonomy of judgement The student, using the acquired juridical knowledge, achieves critical ability and autonomy of judgment with respect to the issues of media rights which present particular problematic profiles (eg protection of privacy and individual personality, copyright, professional activity in the field of communication, internet)

	Communicating skills The student is able to communicate the regulatory provisions on media law as well as the main legal issues relating to it. Ability to learn The student is able to demonstrate, with sufficient mastery of the technical-legal language, to have acquired a good degree of critical knowledge of the legal profiles concerning the various sectors studied.
Contents	The course aims to analyze the rules on communication related to the framework of the c.d. information society. In particular, will be considered in detail: 1) The governance of the system of communication in the information society. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The constitutional principles governing the means of communication between protection of the freedom of enterprise and protection of the person (right to information, freedom of expression, pluralism of information, right to exploitation of public service ether and equal access)</li> <li>- Radio-television (media control, pluralism, radio and television as entertainment company)</li> <li>- Journalistic activity (access to the profession the activity as intellectual service, information privileges, professional diligence)</li> <li>- The freedom of expression in the world of Internet</li> <li>- Information, communication and knowledge (the freedom to disseminate data, the right to access information, the right to be informed, the legal information obligation, the knowledge society)</li> </ul> 2) La legal regulation of the activity of operators and users of the media. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Protection of privacy and personal rights</li> <li>- Protection of intellectual property rights</li> <li>- Protection of databases</li> <li>- Operator access to transmission services (domain name, concession regime, access rights)</li> <li>- Means of communication and responsibility of provider operators (responsibility for system security breaches)</li> <li>- Commercial advertising on television and electronic media and its limits.</li> </ul>
Course program
Bibliography	R. ZACCARIA, A. VALASTRO, E. ALBANESI, Diritto dell'informazione e della comunicazione, Cedam, 2016, pp. 3-365; 419-434; 451- 474; 503-512; 565-584 oppure - R. RAZZANTE Manuale di diritto dell'informazione e della comunicazione, Cedam, 2016, pp. 1-75; 81-108; 156-542; 545-573.
Notes
Teaching methods	Lessons and seminars. During the semester, the teacher will also indicate doctrine and jurisprudential material to deepen the problems that will provoke greater interest among the students. The teaching will favor the method of cases analysis.
Assessment methods	Final oral exam.

	Evaluation criteria for the exam: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- ability to reflect and elaborate a complex thought;</li><li>- ability to express themselves clearly and with appropriate language;</li><li>- ability to include legal institutions within the principles and values underlying the legal system;</li><li>- ability to analyze and understand the legal texts of reference, the doctrinal contributions and the jurisprudential guidelines concerning the discipline.</li></ul>
Further information	