

General information
Academic subject	Italian (Lingua italiana)
Degree course	L-20 Scienze della Comunicazione
ECTS credits	6
Language	Italian

Subject teacher	Name Surname	Email address	SSD
	Marco Maggiore	giacomogramer@gmail.com	L-FIL-LET/12

ECTS credits details	SA	SSD	Credits
	10/F3	L-FIL-LET/12	6

Class schedule
Period	Second semester Academic Year 2019/20
Year	First
Type of class	Frontal lessons

Organizzazione della didattica
Hours measured	1h = 60 min
In-class study hours	40
Out-of-class study hours	110

Academic calendar
Class begins	March 2020
Class ends	May 2020

Syllabus
Prerequisite requirements	Basic knowledge of Italian grammar and language
Expected learning outcomes	Aquiring theoretical foundations and terminology of Italian linguistics. Ability to recognize and master the basic structures of Italian language in its oral and written forms, in order to communicate information, ideas, problems and solutions. Knowledge of the main varieties of Italian and basic notions of Italian linguistic history.
Contents	The class will promote the aquisition of terminology and basic knowledge of Italian language and linguistics, providing the main theoretical and methodological tools needed in order to master the structures of grammar. Notions of Italian language history will also be provided.

Course program
Bibliography	Rita Librandi, L'italiano: strutture, usi, varietà , Rome, Carocci, 2019.
Teaching methods	Classroom exercises. PowerPoint presentation and discussion. Linguistic analysis of Italian medieval and modern texts.
Assessment methods	Final written or oral exam.