

General Information
Academic subject	International Law of the Sea
Degree course	Degree in Sciences and Management of Maritime Activities
Curriculum	**
ECTS credits	6
Compulsory attendance	No
Language	Italian

Subject teacher	Name Surname	Mail address	SSD
	Antonio Leandro	antonio.leandro@uniba.it	IUS/13

ECTS credits details
Basic teaching activities	International Law	IUS/13	6

Class schedule
Period	II Semester
Year	II
Type of class	Lectures and workshops in presence. Parallel distance learning. PowerPoint and PDF support

Time management
Hours	150
Hours of lectures	48
Out-of-class study hours	102

Academic calendar
Class begins	02/03/2021
Class ends	15/06/2021

Syllabus
Prerequisites/requirements	None
Expected learning outcomes	Knowledge and understanding The students will be provided with means and methods to know and understand the main topics of International and European Law of the Sea. Applying knowledge and understanding The students will be able to easily face problems related to the issues learned and the practical implications expressed by the cases that will have been discussed during the lessons. Making informed judgments and choices The students will be able to critically appraise topics and notions that will have been addressed during the lessons. Communicating knowledge and understanding The students will take actively part to the lessons during the discussion times so as to improve their own dialectic skills. Capacities to continue learning The students will gain the needed means and methods to better assess the learned issues and take good command of the treated topics.

Contents	Maritime spaces set up in the UNCLOS (territorial sea, contiguous zone, economic exclusive zone, continental shelf, high seas) and related States' powers – Maritime spaces beyond the UNCLOS – International straits – International Seabed Authority and notion of common heritage of the humanity – Protection of marine environment and underwater cultural heritage – The Barcelona system – Ecological protection zones established by Italy – Scientific research – Safety at sea – Maritime security – Warship and international maritime police – Fight against illicit traffics at sea – Military use of oceans – Principles of naval warfare and international humanitarian law – Settlement of maritime disputes between States
Course program
Bibliography	CAFFIO F., CARNIMEO N., LEANDRO A., Elementi di diritto e geopolitica degli spazi marittimi , Bari, Cacucci, 2013 (except Chapters VI and VII), and LEANDRO A. (ed. by), Mare e Sicurezza. Il contrasto ai traffici marittimi illeciti , Bari, Cacucci, 2018 (except pages 129-181).
Notes	**
Teaching methods	Lessons supported by slides. There may be room also for seminars or workshops.
Assessment methods	Written or oral final exam. The teacher may organize mid-term written exams
Evaluation criteria	The student must demonstrate, with autonomy of view and adequate oral skills, the knowledge of the main international and EU rules which apply to the sea.
Further information	**