

General information
Academic subject	Labour and social security law
Degree course	Single-cycle degree in Law and First-cycle degree in Legal services for immigration, human rights and interculturality
Academic Year	V (exclusively for Single-cycle degree in Law)
European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System (ECTS)	6
Language	Italian
Academic calendar (starting and ending date)	First semester
Attendance	optional

Professor/ Lecturer
Name and Surname	Stefano Caffio
E-mail	Stefano.caffio@uniba.it
Telephone
Department and address	DJSGE – Via Duomo 259 - Taranto
Virtual headquarters
Tutoring (time and day)	wednesday 11:00 – 13:00

Syllabus
Learning Objectives	The aim of the course is to provide students with the basic knowledge of the European, national and regional social security regulatory framework, also with reference to the discipline applicable to foreign workers, as well as the ability to describe and analyze the topics covered during the course.
Course prerequisites	Basic knowledge of labour law
Contents	The programme of teaching Labour Law and Social Security is divided into two parts for a total of 6 CFU. General part <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Notion and historical evolution of social security - Sources of domestic and supranational law - General principles: welfare and assistance; solidarity and automaticity of benefits; organization of the social security system and social security institutions - The contribution relationship and the legal social security relationship: - The protection for accidents at work and occupational diseases - The pension system - Income support benefits in the event of sickness, disability and involuntary unemployment - Supplementary pension provision - Protection for the insolvency of the employer Additional special part for S.G.I. students <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Social security and assistance for foreign workers (EU and non-EU) and the principle of non-discrimination - The regulations applicable to foreign workers - Contribution and social security benefits for foreign workers - Welfare benefits for foreigners
Books and bibliography	One of the following books to choose from: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Persiani, D'Onghia, Fondamenti di diritto della previdenza sociale, Giappichelli, Torino, last ed.

	- Pessi, Lezioni di diritto della previdenza sociale, Giappichelli, Torino, last ed. - Cinelli, Giubboni, Social Security Law, Giappichelli, Torino, last ed. - Mesiti, Diritto della previdenza sociale, Giuffré, Milano, last ed. - AA.VV., Diritto della sicurezza sociale, Giuffré, Milano, ult. ed.
Additional materials	Supplementary teaching materials will be provided during the course

Work schedule
Total	Lectures	Hands on (Laboratory, working groups, seminars, field trips)	Out-of-class study hours/ Self-study hours
Hours
150	48	0	102
ECTS
6	6
Teaching strategy		Classroom lectures, case study exercises, seminars on specific topics
Expected learning outcomes
Knowledge and understanding on:		The aim of the course is to provide students with the basic knowledge of the European, national and regional social security regulatory framework, also with reference to the discipline applicable to foreign workers, as well as the ability to describe and analyze the topics covered during the course.
Applying knowledge and understanding on:		At the end of the course the student, through the theoretical knowledge acquired, will be able to analyze and solve some of the most significant issues related to the recognition of rights to social security and welfare benefits, also for foreign workers
Soft skills		Making informed judgments and choices: The course will enable the student to acquire an adequate capacity for (critical) analysis of the topics covered by the programme, so as to be able to deal independently with some of the main legal and social issues in the field of social security and assistance Communicating knowledge and understanding The student, at the end of the course, must have acquired the appropriate legal lexicon on social security and social assistance. Capacities to continue learning: The student will be able to use the study and analysis methodologies used during the course to deal with social security and welfare issues other than those dealt with.

Assessment and feedback
Methods of assessment	Oral exam at the end of the course with interview
Evaluation criteria	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Knowledge and understanding Assessment of the ability to define and describe topics covered by the course (minimum level of learning) • Applying knowledge and understanding Assessment of the ability to apply the knowledge acquired to real cases and to identify elements of correlation between different topics in the field of social security • Autonomy of judgment Assessment of the ability to critically analyze the topics covered by the course and to debate the issues related to them by formulating

	conclusions and reasoned judgements <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Communicating knowledge and understanding Assessment of the ability to express oneself orally in terms of linguistic appropriateness and fluency in legal lexicon, conceptual organization, logical-argumentary process and clarity • Communication skills Assessment of the ability to effectively convey the concepts and content learned during the course • Capacities to continue learning Assessment of the ability to use the study methodology used during the course to analyze and solve problems in the field of social security and social assistance different from those addressed in the case studies dealt with during the lessons.
Criteria for assessment and attribution of the final mark	Oral examination at the end of the course with grade in thirtieths or with evaluation of qualification
Additional information	