

COURSE OF STUDY Legal Services for Immigration, Human Rights and Interculturality
ACADEMIC YEAR 2024/2025
ACADEMIC SUBJECT General Principles and History of the Mediterranean Reality
(Integrated test with History of Justice; 12 CFU)

General information
Year of the course	I
Academic calendar (starting and ending date)	I semester (from 9 September 2024 to 6 December 2024)
Credits (CFU/ETCS):	6
SSD	IUS/18
Language	Italian
Mode of attendance	optional

Professor/ Lecturer
Name and Surname	MARIA CASOLA
E-mail	maria.casola@uniba.it
Telephone
Department and address	Duomo street, 259 Taranto
Virtual room	Microsoft Teams
Office Hours (and modalities: e.g., by appointment, on line, etc.)	Contact by e-mail

Work schedule
Hours
Total	Lectures	Hands-on (laboratory, workshops, working groups, seminars, field trips)	Out-of-class study hours/ Self-study hours
150	48		102
CFU/ETCS
6

Learning Objectives
Course prerequisites	Being a first-year exam, there are no specific prerequisites other than those required for admission to the Study Programme.

Teaching strategie	Lectures, Active learning discussion sessions, workshops, seminars, small groups or teamwork. Use of multimedia tools (power point, etc.)
Expected learning outcomes in terms of	The course aims to focus on the current political structure, starting from the common roots that for us are those of the ancient Mediterranean and that constitute, through the sectors of democracy and Res publica , the common reference of the West, the Americas and from many countries in Africa and Asia.

Knowledge and understanding on:	- have profound knowledge and understanding of the origins and development of constitutional structures, techniques and case-study methodologies developed by Roman jurisprudence.
Applying knowledge and understanding on:	- understand and explain the different forms of government, procedural systems, and the production of law, including their effects on the European legal tradition.
Soft skills	- demonstrate skills and ability to fully communicate the notions in their own way using technical-juridical language. Mastery of argumentation techniques in communicating opinions expressed. - demonstrate capacity to read and understand other texts on the related topics.
Syllabus
Content knowledge	The course will focus on the following topics: ius publicum e ius privatum (in particular ius naturale, ius civile, ius gentium); the principles of Roman Law: projections in contemporary societies; populus Romanus; ius Romanum e Iura populi Romani ; human rights in their historical genesis; the centrality of the person; cives and peregrini (the problem of citizenship).
Texts and readings	G. Valditara, Civis Romanus Sum , Giappichelli Editore. Torino, 2018. The students attending will be able to agree with the teacher a differentiated program.
Notes, additional materials	Support material will be made available through the e-learning platform.
Repository
Assessment
Assessment methods	Oral examination of the topics, scheduled according to the teaching calendar. However, students attending regularly will be able to take an intermediate test, possibly written, for the mere purpose of exam preparation.
Assessment criteria	The student undergoes an examination consisting of traditional questions asked to ascertain the effective acquisition of skills described in the "Expected Learning Outcomes" and "Content" sections. The final evaluation is a graded oral exam.
Final exam and grading criteria	The final grade is awarded out of thirty. The exam is considered passed when the grade is greater than or equal to 18.
Further information	The degree theses will be assigned in compliance with the terms established by the didactic regulations, during approved receiving hours.