

General Information
Academic subject	Economic History
Academic year	2020-2021
Degree course	History and Social Sciences (L42)
ECTS credits	6
Compulsory attendance	No
Language	Italian

Subject teacher	Name Surname	Mail address	SSD
	Ezio Ritrovato	ezio.ritrovato@uniba.it	SECS-P/12

Class schedule
Period	First semester
Year	2020-2021
Type of class	Lectures - workshops

Time management
Hours	150
In-class study hours	42
Out-of-class study hours	108

Academic calendar
Class begins	September 28, 2020
Class ends	December 11, 2020

Syllabus
Prerequisites/requirements	Knowledge of the fundamental themes of European history in modern and contemporary age
Expected learning outcomes (according to Dublin Descriptors) (it is recommended that they are congruent with the learning outcomes contained in A4a, A4b, A4c tables of the SUA-CdS)	Knowledge and understanding The student will fully understand the process of development of the European economy in its various forms and methods of implementation. Applying knowledge and understanding The student will fully understand the process of development of the European economy in its various forms and methods of implementation. Making informed judgements and choices The student will be able to autonomously evaluate the historical-economic dynamics that have produced different paths of development among the European States Communicating knowledge and understanding The student will be able to analyze and illustrate the performance of the economies of various European states Capacities to continue learning Through workshops, the ability of students to understand and learn the topics analyzed is shown
Contents	Starting from the premise of continuity in the economic development process, the course aims to illustrate the phases of European economic expansion in the pre-industrial age and then move on, following a chronological order, the process of economic development that has affected Europe from start of the Industrial Revolution to the recent years. Particular attention will be devoted to the path of industrialization of the European countries and structural change of the various national economies, which are the historical background of the globalization process still going on.

Course program
Bibliography	A. Di Vittorio (coord.), Dall'espansione allo sviluppo. Una storia economica d'Europa , Torino, Giappichelli, 2011.
Notes	The program foresees the study of the reference text starting from the 17th century
Teaching methods	Lectures with slide projection; Seminars
Assessment methods (indicate at least the type written, oral, other)	Oral exam
Evaluation criteria (Explain for each expected learning outcome what a student has to know, or is able to do, and how many levels of achievement there are.	By participating at workshops and passing the oral exam, the student will demonstrate that he has understood the historical-economic dynamics that have affected the European states in modern and contemporary age.
Further information	