

General Information
Academic subject	Latin Language
Degree course	L- 42 - Historical and Social Sciences
Academic Year	2021-2022
ECTS credits	3CFU
Compulsory attendance	No
Language	Italian

Subject teacher	Name Surname	Mail address	SSD
	Graziana Brescia	graziana.brescia@uniba.it	L-Fil-Let/04

ECTS credits details
Basic teaching activities	3 ECTS

Class schedule
Period	Second semester
Year	II
Type of class	Lecture- workshops

Time management
Hours	75
In-class study hours	30
Out-of-class study hours	45

Academic calendar
Class begins	21 st February 2022
Class ends	21 st May 2022

Syllabus
Prerequisites/requirements	Good Knowledge of the Italian language in its morphological and syntactic aspects is desirable
Expected learning outcomes (according to Dublin Descriptors)	Knowledge and understanding Elementary Latin is a Laboratory Course designed to introduce students (students who did not study Latin at school) to the basic elements of the Latin language. It will emphasize the fundamentals of prosody, grammar, vocabulary, and reading comprehension – in other words, all of the tools necessary to develop a sound reading proficiency in Latin. Students will start a systematic study of nominal and verbal flexion, supported by a constant comparison with the Italian language. Applying knowledge and understanding In addition to introducing the grammar and syntax of the Latin language, the course encourages students to become more aware of themselves as language users and learners.

	Making informed judgements and choices The study of Latin generally hones the mental faculties, cultivating careful analysis and attention. It is also an ongoing practice in linguistic problem-solving that generally helps students to become close and careful readers and writers. Communicating knowledge and understanding Studying Latin prepares students even to master modern languages, shedding light on the way all languages work. Capacities to continue learning Latin prepares students for several important professions that are steeped in Latin or English words derived from Latin.
Contents	Elements of prosody; the five declensions; first- and second-class adjectives; degrees of comparison of the adjective; Pronouns; verbal Conjugations; basic syntactic constructs
Course program	LATIN ELEMENTARY COURSE
Bibliography	- For self-tutorial exercises: M. Craveri, Guida all'apprendimento del latino , Il Girasole, 2008, vol. 1 (ISBN 10: 8885906591)
Notes	An e-learning Course in open access is also available: https://elearning2.uniba.it/moodle/
Teaching methods	Lectures, exercises and workshops
Assessment methods (indicate at least the type written, oral, other)	Oral
Evaluation criteria	The oral examination aims at verifying the knowledge of the grammatical topics and the linguistic competence through oral translation of Latin passages
Further information	