Expected learning outcomes (according to Dublin Descriptors) (it is recommended that they are congruent with the learning outcomes contained in A4a, A4b, A4c tables of the SUA-CdS)	Knowledge and understanding The extraordinary financial statements course is focused on the study of extraordinary transactions, as part of restructuring processes and changes in the institutional set-ups of companies. The course aims to provide the theoretical basis necessary for the classification of the aforementioned operations with particular reference to the analysis of the methods of economic evaluation of the business capital and the preparation of extraordinary financial statements, in light of the different perspectives elaborated by doctrine and practice . Applying knowledge and understanding Through the exercises carried out during the course, aimed at drafting extraordinary financial statements, the student can verify the degree of understanding and the application of the acquired knowledge. The student will also be able to formulate a demonstrable and rational assessment of company evaluation, even in the awareness of the subjectivity inherent in these processes. Making informed judgements and choices The course aims to show how extraordinary transactions can be considered as strategic options aimed at maintaining or restoring

	conditions of economicità. The student, therefore, will have the tools to identify in practice the most suitable choice among the different options. The student will also be able to draw up extraordinary reports and develop skills aimed at drafting the necessary evaluation reports. Communicating knowledge and understanding After the course, the student will have acquired an economic-business lexicon so that he/she will expose the solutions developed and will be able to prepare the necessary documents suitable for the implementation of the chosen solutions or the various possible alternatives. Capacities to continue learning The course, in addition to consolidating the basic knowledge already acquired in the economic-business, deepens the extraordinary dynamics of the life of the company, to allow learning the essential elements of an extraordinary operation, both from a theoretical point of view and in relation to the relative practical application.
