Summer School in Safety, Navigation and Environment VASCO DA GAMA

Summer School Director
Prof. Antonio Felice Uricchio

Objectives

The Summer School aims to:

- set up and develop an innovative educational project on Multimodal Carriage (especially the maritime one) and Port Logistics from which the maritime entrepreneurs may benefit;
- foster young people being willing either of a professional characterization or to improve their own technical knowledge;
- facilitate the interplay between actors carrying out multi-modal carriage and port logistics services;
- improve the attractiveness of the productivity and service chain by promoting the sector of the multi-modal carriage and port logistics;
- foster the entrepreneurial spirit through the explanation of chances and obstacles that currently hinder the development of far-reaching and high-potential chains, such as that concerning multi-modal carriage and port logistics;
- facilitate the cultural and generational exchange among people coming from different countries and universities;
- shorten the distances between European citizens and European institutions organizing presentations and discussions on the European policies in matter of multi-modal carriage and port logistics.

Presentations and workshops will be delivered in English.

Training Period and Location

The Summer School will be held in Taranto (Apulia, Italy) from 2nd to 6th July 2018.
