Expected learning outcomes
Knowledge and understanding on:		Students will acquire fundamental concepts in: <ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Instructional design models and theories;○ Interpretation of educational issues in different contexts;○ Implementation of designed activities;○ Evaluation of formative processes.
Applying knowledge and understanding on:		Students will learn how to design education practice and learning activities in a responsive and effective way.
Soft skills		<ul style="list-style-type: none">· Making informed judgments and choices Students will learn how to use in critical and autonomous way, strategies, techniques and teaching tools for instructional and educational design in different learning settings and contexts. They will learn how to implement and evaluate an educational project and its impacts in different contexts.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Communicating knowledge and understanding Students will acquire all skills needed for educational design. The course will encourage the development of team-working; know how to manage workloads on time; know how to handle conflicts. Particular attention will then be placed on the ability to present and communicate (in several ways) an educational project. • Capacities to continue learning <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Students will learn in a reflective and experiential way.

Assessment and feedback
Methods of assessment	Students will be assessed by oral examination. An educational project presentation is mandatory. There will not considered exemptions. There will be implemented moments of diagnostic and formative assessment as support for learning (self and peer assessment) and exercises. Part of the teaching hours will be in English (e.g., for instructional design and ADDIE topics)
Evaluation criteria	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Knowledge and understanding <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students will be assessed by oral examination. The process of assessment is designed to reflect content knowledge and to grasp these elements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Didactics and teaching theories; • Lexicon; • Inference skills; • Reflexivity and critical thinking. • Applying knowledge and understanding For the evaluation of the applying knowledge and understanding students will produce a project or an evaluation project related to course contents. Autonomy of judgment/Communicating knowledge and understanding/Communication skills/Capacities to continue learning During the course, simulations, drill and practices, as well as case studies will be allow to assess, through self and peer assessment modalities, if students progressed in making informed judgments and choices, in communicating knowledge and understanding, and self-regulate their learning.
Criteria for assessment and attribution of the final mark	The vote will be expressed out of thirty. The assessment of learning will be based on a careful analysis of the educational project carried out by students (Orderly and complete development; Articulated and effective argumentation; Use of technical terms; Personal experience references and independently use of the knowledge learned) (30% of final grade) and the oral exam (Recognition of the dimensions and foundations of the instructional design; Identification of the different models of analysis and teaching practice; Autonomous and conscious analysis of teaching professionalism) (70% of the final grade).
Additional information
	Hand-outs (both in Italian and English), learning material and organizers will be provided to students
