

Goals of CESARe Summer School

At the end of CESARe Summer School each participant will acquire useful skills to understand and implement new sustainable business models according to circular economy paradigms and enhance new European strategies within Mediterranean area. Each participant will:

- Comprehend and develop knowledge on Circular Economy
- Acquire a set of useful skills and experiences to develop innovative sustainable businesses
- Implement sustainable management towards circular strategies
- Apply knowledge to Mediterranean area and understand opportunities in reference markets