

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI BARI
ALDO MORO

DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMICS AND FINANCE

V OPEN RESEARCH SEMINAR 2ND MAY 2019

AULA ROMANELLI

LARGO ABBAZIA SANTA SCOLASTICA 53, BARI

11.00 – 11.30 Opening address:

Prof. Vitorocco Peragine, Head of Department of Economics & Finance

Prof. Anna Lucia Muserra, Department of Economics & Finance

Prof. Nicola Coniglio, Department of Economics & Finance

11.30 – 13.00 Key note guest lecture:

Qualitative Research: What Opportunities and Challenges in Business and Accounting Research?

John Holland, University of Glasgow, Adam Smith Business School

13.00 – 13.30 Closing remarks

Organising Committee: Anna Lucia Muserra, Marco Papa, Francesco Grimaldi

Seminar attendance is free of charge. However registration is essential and required.

Correspondence to: marco.papa@uniba.it or francesco.grimaldi1@uniba.it.

ECONOMICS & FINANCE RESEARCH SEMINARS
UNIVERSITY OF BARI ALDO MORO

- 28 May 2018, IV Open Research Seminar: The Future Of Corporate Reporting and The Role Of Non-Financial Information Regulations, Mike Jones, University of Bristol.
- 16 May 2018: Developing 'Integrated thinking' about Financial firms, John Holland, Adam Smith Business School, University of Glasgow.
- 30 May 2013, III Open Research Seminar: Creative Accounting, Fraud and International Accounting Scandals, Mike Jones, University of Bristol.
- 13 May 2011: Cultural dialogues and the accounting profession: the case of the FRC complexity project, Philip Linsley, University of York;
- 14 May 2010, II Open Research Seminar: The Evolution of the IASC into the IASB, Stephen A. Zeff, Rice University.
- 25 February 2009, I Open Research Seminar: External Communication by Organisations: Uncovering the Dimensions of the Research Space, Vivien Beattie, University of Lancaster.