HEI Consortium

Advenio eAcademy in conjunction with a number of Higher Educational Institutions, will be launching a certified on-line Masters programme in Entrepreneurship.

The programme is certified by the Malta Commission for Further and Higher Education in Malta (NCFHE) and is equivalent to the Malta Qualifications Council post-graduate Level 7 at 90 ECTS credits as per European Qualifications Framework. The accreditation of the course provides the confirmation of European quality assurance and the automatic recognition of the course within the EU.

The collaborating Higher Educational Institutions bring to the programme years of international experience at graduate level and include some very well-known European universities. This international involvement is what distinguishes the proposed programme most. It provides a uniquely European open approach to learning, focusing on the on-going development of best practices in the different fields related to entrepreneurship.

The collaborating HEIs include:- MALTA - Advenio eAcademy GREECE – University of Ioannina; HUNGARY - Szent Istvan University; ITALY – University of Bari Aldo Moro; SLOVAKIA - University of Žilina and UKRAINE - Poltava University of Economics and Trade.

The proposed MHEI – ME (Multiple Higher Educational Institution – Masters in Entrepreneurship) brings together Multiple Higher Education Institutions to design, develop, implement and operate an online Masters programme in Entrepreneurship. This programme is designed to assist practicing entrepreneurs, current managers of Small and Medium Sized Enterprises. It will assist participants in meeting the challenges of today's international SME either as entrepreneurs or executives within SMEs.

The programme is in response to the market requirements for specialised post graduate quality courses that meet the needs of existing entrepreneurs and small business managers. The focus of this programme is to provide entrepreneurs, or aspiring entrepreneurs, with a higher level of competence to enable them to successfully launch or grow their SME operation.
