The University headquarter (Ateneo) and the Faculty of Law are located in the very centre of the city, very close to one another, in the proximity of the central station and many bus stops. There is a direct train arriving from the airport to the central station in 15 mins.

If you choose a house in the city centre, everything will be within walking distance.

The most central areas are “Murat”, the old city “San Nicola” and “Quartiere Umbertino”.

The University is in the Murat area.

UNIVERSITY OF BARI

- Main building – Palazzo Ateneo

Welcome to Palazzo Ateneo. Here you will find the administrative offices of all the faculties (including Law) and the Aula Magna.

The building is also the headquarter of the humanistic pole.

It's possible to use the libraries as studying rooms, but you will not find law books there.

The Law Department is just a few steps ahead.

Inside the Ateneo

- At the ground floor you will find this courtyard, the Aula Magna, a caffè and a cash dispenser. That's useful in Italy, since not everywhere is possible to pay

AULA MAGNA

- Many conferences take place here. Some are in English and open to students. Anyway it's nice to have a look at this beauty!

WELCOME to Palazzo Poste

The Erasmus Office

Just behind Palazzo Ateneo is Palazzo Poste in Piazza Cesare Battisti, the university building that houses the Erasmus Office, directed by Dr. Luisa D'Aniello, along with several reading rooms also open during the weekends.
