

International PhD Seminars on EU Antitrust Law

Seminar 1 (3 h) - 26.06.2020 (online su Teams del Dottorato di ricerca in Principi Giuridici)

- Cartels. Recent Case law.
 - Special focus on Bid Rigging.
- Vertical Restrictions. Ongoing review of Vertical Block Exemption Regulation 330/2010.

Seminar 3 (3 h) – 29.06.2020 (online su Teams del Dottorato di ricerca in Principi Giuridici)

- Competition in the Digital Market. E-commerce Sector inquiry 2016. Main results on the most common restrictions and related open investigations.
 - Restrictions of Online sales: from total ban on online sales to ban on sales in Amazon. The evolution from Pierre Fabre to Coty Case.
- Geoblocking of crossborder e-commerce and parallel trade. From free movement of goods to competition cases (Guess Case, 2019).
- Single Digital market of digital contents. The territorial barrier built on copyright.

Lunedì 19 Ottobre 2020 dalle 16:30 alle 18:30 (3 ore didattiche)
SALA riunioni di Procedura civile – C.so Italia, 23 – Il piano

Seminar 3 (3 h)

- Horizontal Restrictions. The European rules on cooperation between competitors.
- Abuse of dominant position. Recent Case law.
 - Special focus on “Digital Giants” cases.

Martedì 20 Ottobre 2020 dalle 15:30 alle 17:30 (3 ore didattiche)
SALA riunioni di Procedura civile – C.so Italia, 23 – Il piano

Seminar 4 (3 h)

- Competition issues arising by algorithms and Big Data.
 - Market monitoring and risk of collusion.
 - Market monitoring and risk of discriminatory pricing.

Martedì 3 Novembre 2020 dalle 15:30 alle 17:30 (3 ore didattiche)
online su Teams del Dottorato di ricerca in Principi Giuridici

Seminar 5 (3 h)

- The Directive 29/2005 on unfair commercial practices against consumers.
 - Unfair commercial practices online. The revision of the Directive 2005/29 in the context of the European Commission “New Consumers Deal”.
- Public versus private enforcement of Competition Law. A comparative study of the National Competition Authorities of Italy and Spain.
- Procedural issues of Competition Law. The rare use of interim measures in Competition Law.