In the Section Information notice on personal data treatment you must read a list of declarations.

In the Section Declarations you must read a list of declarations and upload any documentation (Declaration for holder of a research grant, Declaration for Public Employees, Assistance and extra time, etc.)

In the following section (PhD course) applicants must choose the PhD Course (fig. 10), the curriculum (if any), the places, and the scholarships with priority research topic (if any) they want to apply for.

If specified in the PhD table applicants will also see scholarships reserved to applicants with foreign qualifications. Eligible applicants can specify their interest to apply for such scholarships. If these scholarships are awarded via separate rankings, eligible applicants must choose if they want to apply for this particular kind of scholarships or for the other places/scholarships available.

If specified in the call applicants will also see the Higher-level apprenticeship contracts potentially available. Under these contracts PhD students are employed by a company with a 3/4 year contract in order to develop the research topic specified.

Fig. 14 – Submission of the application

If the application has been filled in correctly you will see the pdf file of the application. In case there are mistakes applicants receive an error message and the application must be corrected. When the application has been corrected you are directed to the following section and you must click on 'Sign' (fig. 15).

In case of access via SPID, no signature will be required when submitting the application. (fig.15).

Fig. 15 – Submission of the application

After the submission you will see three possibilities to sign the application. You must choose one and follow the instructions (fig. 16).

Fig. 16 – Signature

If you choose to sign with no digital signature you must print the pdf application, sign it, scan it, and upload it. We advise to check that the uploaded file is complete.

After the submission applicants will receive an email with the confirmation of the submission. Applicants will always be able to login to their account, personal data and application form.

3. APPLICATION FORM MODIFICATION OR WITHDRAWAL

If applicants need to modify the application form after the pdf has been created:

- if they have submitted the application form and received the email of confirmation, they cannot modify the application form but they will be able to withdraw it following the relevant procedure available on the dashboard and submit a new application form;

- if they have created the pdf file but they have not completed the submission (the pdf file has not been uploaded yet and so they haven't received the email of confirmation), then they must write to uniba@cineca.it and ask to have the application re-opened. In the email they must specify the reason of their request and the ID of their application form, and attach copy of their identity document.
